Edwin Howard Armstrong: Radio Pioneer

SATURDAY, MAY 19
11:00 AM-12:30 PM

The Long Island Wireless Historical Society will offer a program about Edwin Howard Armstrong who had a close connection with Sayville, West Sayville, Bayport and Great River. Armstrong, who invented FM radio, sold several of his patents to the Telefunken Company when they were operating the radio station in West Sayville. Without these patents, it would have taken them much longer to be able to consistently reach Europe, and the West Sayville station was the first U.S. radio station to do this.

Hope & Healing: The Grief Journey

MONDAY, MAY 21, 6:30-8:30 PM

Gracie Mansion Tour

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25

Join us for our summer bus trip as we travel by deluxe coach bus to New York City where we will have a guided tour of Gracie Mansion, the official residence of the Mayor of New York City. Constructed in 1799, the two-story Federal-style structure overlooking the East River remained a private home for nearly a century until it was purchased by the City and made part of Carl Schurz Park. It became the official mayoral residence in 1942. Also included in the trip is lunch at the Heidelberg Restaurant for some delicious German food, and a narrated bus tour of New York City! We will arrive home approximately 7:00 pm.

This trip requires moderate walking, including 28 stairs.

This trip is co-sponsored with the Bayport-Blue Point Library, so space is limited.

DEPARTURE FROM SAYVILLE: 8:30 AM

FEE: $87.00

*"A library is not just a building full of books.
It is a garden to cultivate individuals."*

Said by Secretary-General of the United Nations Ban Ki-Moon in January 2012 upon the opening of a school library in Ethiopia.

At Sayville Library you may:

- satisfy your social requirements by joining a book, bridge or mah jongg club
- satisfy your music interest by borrowing CDs
- satisfy your curiosity about computers and the Internet by taking a free, hands-on computer workshop
- satisfy your urge to try out an e-reader by borrowing a Kobe Reader
- satisfy your research needs by making a one-on-one appointment with a librarian to learn how to get the most from free online resources made available through the library's website
- and on the most basic level, satisfy your reading and movie interests with the over 8,000,000 materials available to you for borrowing from the 56 libraries in Suffolk County.

The Friends of Sayville Library will be having their Annual Fire Island Bake Sale on Friday, June 29. Bakers needed and for more information please contact Kristen at 567-9032.
